The December 13, 2019 WSCUC visiting team's report and the February 26, 2020 WSCUC Commission action letter, which affirmed the reaccreditation of UCLA, did not address any of the serious issues raised in eight Third-Party Comments to WSCUC on UCLA submitted from November 4, 2019 to January 20, 2020.

The April 1, 2020 Enstrom Request for Patricia A. Turner, PhD, UCLA Accreditation Liaison Officer & Vice Provost and Dean of Undergraduate Education, to discuss these detailed Comments was firmly rejected on April 3, 2020.

November 4, 2019 Comment by James Enstrom
on Multiple Violations of UCLA Mission

The basis of my comment is strong evidence of violations of the UCLA Mission Statement in the areas of academic freedom, academic diversity, and research integrity. UCLA is violating these three phrases in its Mission Statement: "To fulfill this mission, UCLA is committed to academic freedom in its fullest terms," "In all of our pursuits, we strive at once for excellence and diversity," and "As one of the world's great research universities, we are committed to ensuring excellence."

Conclusions

UC/UCLA Violate Mission Statement & California Constitution

Liberal Domination of UC Hurts Academics and Students

UC Diversity Mandates Will Reduce Academic Diversity

Students-Parents-Taxpayers Must Fight Liberal Domination

CA/UC/UCLA Must Support Equal Rights and Reject Prop 16
